

17th Annual International Association for Public Participation International Conference

Westin San Diego on Broadway - September 21-23, 2009

What is the future of Public Participation?
Find out at the 17th Annual International Association for Public Participation International Conference, Making Sustainable Decisions.

- Opportunity to network with peers
- Learn about new techniques such as social media and Web 2.0
- More than 70 sessions for all levels – beginners, intermediate and advanced
- Keynote speaker
- Field trips and films

Highlights of Topics and Presenters

- Marine Protection presented by Peter Halmay, Co-chair, Fisherman's Working Group in San Diego
- Facebook: Fad or Future? presented by Martin J. Cowling, People First – Total Solutions
- Community Forums presented by Janet D. Fiero, Ph.D. & Jesse Sostrin, Ph.D., AmericaSpeaks
- Sustainable Conversations presented by DeAnna Martin, Center for Wise Democracy
- Outreaching Partnering in Africa presented by Claire R. Mendelsohn, US Air Force Western Regional Environmental Office
- Dare to Dream! Exploring a New Era of Public Engagement presented by Sandy Heierbacher, National Coalition for Dialogue and Deliberation, Myriam Laberge and Brenda Chaddock, Masterful Facilitation Institute and much more!

Register by August 7 and be entered to win
2 FREE Fabulous San Diego Harbor Cruise
tickets courtesy of Hornblower Cruises & Events!

Visit www.IAP2.org

Don't forget Pre-Conference Training is also available September 18-20, 2009 .

World-class trainers are offering a variety of in-depth sessions in public participation, facilitation, conflict resolution, social media and Web 2.0 applications relating to building public consensus and citizen stakeholder participation.

Information and to register: www.IAP2.org or call 800.644.4273